The Township Committee.

At a Meeting of the Township Committee, held on Wednesday, June 10th, on motion of Mr. M. A. Dailey, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The gentlemen comprising the Bloomfield Fire Association have organized and established a creditable Fire Department in this Township and have done valuable service in extinguishing, and preventing the spread of Fire in this community, and the people whom we represent fully appreciate their services, in which feeling we join with them. Therefore, be it

 Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the officers and members of the Bloomfield Fire Association for all that the have done for us in the matters of the establishment and organization of the Fire Department.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the trustees of the Bloomfield Fire Association and be published in the "Bloomfield CITIZEN."

The Township Committee's Resolu-

For the Citizen:

I have had the favor of a perusal of the resolutions recently passed by the Township Committee, commendatory of the Bloomfield Fire Association, and which I suppose you will be requested to publish in this week's issue. Will you permit me to say that as a member of that Association and also of its Board of Trustees, more courteous treatment on the part of some of the members of that committee, and less resolution, would have been more palatable. After being so unceremoniously kicked out of the backdoor, as we were, these resolutions seem to me like adding insult to injury, and especially so, if I am correctly informed, that the mover of the resolutions was the one of the majority who in a recent meeting of the committee declared "There has been troubles and dissensions in the Association all along, and there is no use in denying it, and I am going to vote to "bust it up" if it makes every member of the Association" my enemy Respectfully Yours,

G. T. MOORE.

Lincoln's Start in Life. Under what grinding disabilities Abra ham Lincoln labored for many years may be inferred from the account of hi arrival, in 1837, at springfield, where the lawyer who lent him law books had offered him a partnership. "He rode, an old friend says, "into town on a borrowed horse, without earthly goods beyond a pair of saddle-bags, two or three law books and some clothing in a bag. He came into my store, set his saddlebags on the counter and said: 'Speed, tell me what the furniture for a single bedroom will cost.' I took my pencil, figured it up as d found it would cost $17. Lincoln replied: It is cheap enough, but I want to say that, cheap as it, I have not the money to pay. But if you will credit me until Christmas, and my experiment here is a success, I will pay you then. If I fail I shall probably never be able to pay you.' The voice was so melancholy I felt for him, and told him that I had a very large double bed, which he was perfectly welcome to share with me, if he chose. Where is your bed? said Lincoln. 'Up-stairs,' I answered. He took his saddle-bags on his arms, went up-stairs, set them on the floor and came down langhing, saying; · Well. Speed, I'm moved, The ludicrous idea of moving all his earthly goods and chattels by taking his saddle-bags
